

NOON RALLIES FOR ALICE HANNAGAN AND JACK DANIELS

"Star Eyes" Alice Hannagan will be presented in the Quad for the first time today at a noon rally held by her sponsors, Newman club and Beta Gamma Chi.

Masked masters of ceremony will preside over the entertainment, which is to include a solo by Beverly Clay and a duet by Florence Silva and Edna Fanucchi, accompanied by Jane Fisher on the piano. "Life of Alice Hannagan," a skit, will be presented by members of the sponsoring organizations.

"Something new in rallies" is promised at 12:30 when Mu Delta Pi and Smock 'n Tam present Jack "Dapper Dan" Daniels, candidate for King of Spardi Gras.

The nature of Daniels' rally will be a big surprise, declare Dewey Smith and Milo Badger, rally chairmen, but they promise it will "go off with a bang."

Al Johnson and John Calderwood, well known campus "hams," will officiate as masters of ceremony, assisted by LeRoy McNown and Jack Ward.

Musical entertainment will include hot jazz numbers by the Phi Mu Alpha band, as well as songs "styled" by the Hairo Quartet, composed of Happy Hyman, Howard Riddle, Milo Badger, and Bud Hooton.

ALUMNI FINISH HOMECOMING PLANS THURS.

Final arrangements for the annual alumni Homecoming will be made Thursday at 5 o'clock, when Alumni President Charles Hillis and members of the executive board meet in the Placement office.

Mrs. Frances Lanyon, general chairman for Homecoming, will make her final report on plans for the traditional reunion. "Horizons of the Future" is theme of the day.

Main feature of Homecoming is the outdoor luncheon served at 12:30 under the trees on the San Carlos turf. After luncheon is served, a variety program is presented. New officers for next year will be introduced, and business matters settled during 11 o'clock meetings will be announced.

Honor graduates this year are the classes of 1895, 1920, and 1935, following the tradition of honoring graduates of 50, 25, and 10 years ago. Classes of 1943 and 1944 will also hold reunions, and the Golden Grads, organization of alumni who graduated 50 or more years ago, will elect officers in their annual meeting.

Several campus groups are participating in the arrangements and program for Homecoming, and many are scheduling special events in honor of alumni members.

CARNIVAL HEADS, REPRESENTATIVES TO MEET TONIGHT

Last minute preparations for Spardi Gras are moving quickly and will be completed at tonight's meeting in the Student Union at 7:30, says Chairman Milo Badger. All committee heads and members, as well as organization representatives, will attend the meeting.

Today is the deadline for purchasing bean feed tickets. The number planning to attend must be known today in order to allot the proper amount of food. Buy your ticket now.

A 30-cent meal will be served for 10 cents. This is possible because of the generous offer of the Student Council to make up the difference from ASB funds.

Balls, rings, and darts purchased by the Spardi Gras committee for use with concessions may be obtained for the asking from either Business Manager Happy Hyman or Badger.

Benny Glassman's 16-piece orchestra will play for the dressy-sport Spardi Gras dance from 9 p. m. till 1 a. m. The orchestra is said to have a full library of slow and fast tunes.

During the afternoon of Spardi Gras the inner quad, the lower balcony, the area from the archways to front sidewalk and the area from the Science building to the Library will be policed by Veterans. Offenders caught in any of these areas out of costume will be taken before the Student Court. Violators will be judged, and fines and jail terms will be given. Fines will be imposed according to ability to pay.

From 5 p. m. until the conclusion of the bean feed anyone discovered in the rear quad, between the Home Economics building and the Music building, or between the Music building and the Art wing will be arrested by the Veterans.

Spardi Gras Dance Plans Computed By Social Affairs

A Social Affairs committee meeting was held yesterday afternoon in the Student Union presided over by Chairman Ellen Mattison.

Final plans were completed for the Spardi Gras dance to be held this Friday night in the Men's gym from 9 to 1. Benny Glassman's 16-piece orchestra will provide the music.

Dorothy Herger, decorations committee head, explained final plans which will carry out the carnival theme.

Ellen Mattison has requested all members of the committee to report to work Thursday afternoon or evening to work on decorations for the dance.

The swimming party to be held this Sunday was also discussed. Social Affairs committee will have the food concession and will serve cup cakes and cokes.

SPARDI MA AND PA RESULTS WILL BE GIVEN TOMORROW

Clearing his throat for a momentous announcement, Dr. G. A. McCallum of the faculty Spardi Gras concession committee told the Spartan Daily yesterday that results of the Spardi Ma and Pa contest will be announced in Thursday's Daily.

"Watch the paper tomorrow," he advises readers, "as we will have an important announcement regarding the Spardi Ma and Pa contest."

Dr. McCallum, who is chairman of the faculty concession for Spardi Gras, says the Spardi Ma and Pa voting exceeded by several hundred the students' king and queen contest voting.

"Those who counted the votes for the faculty have a sneaking suspicion that in certain cases the ballot box was . . . er . . . stuffed," reported Dr. McCallum cheerfully. "We are not accusing anyone, but when you get a bunch of 25 ballots stuck together, all for the same person, you begin to wonder."

"We know of only one professor's office where such things were going on."

Tomorrow's announcement will reveal how results are to be given, but the faculty still withholds any clue of exactly what their concession will feature on Spardi Gras day. Spardi Ma and Pa will be in it, and that's all they are telling.

Boulder Creek To Be Scene of Senior Scram On June 8-9

Emma Ann Wishart, chairman of the Senior Scram, announced yesterday that the class will hold their annual outing at the YMCA camp at Boulder Creek June 8 and 9.

Miss Wishart warns seniors planning to attend the overnight affair that sign-ups must take place by Tuesday, May 29. Students not signing by the deadline will be unable to attend.

Swimming, hiking, and campfire entertainment will be featured at the event. Juniors will be invited to join the seniors on June 9.

Blooming Flowers In The Art Wing

Oh, the flowers that bloom in the spring, tra-la!

New flower arrangements decorating the lower corridor of the Art department were done by members of Mrs. Gladys Vogel's flower arrangement class.

The large white flowers spread out in a low, round vase go by the name of Gabriel's Trumpets — or so the Art department informs us. Right across the corridor from the trumpets is a design made up of snapdragons, bachelor buttons, stock, and pansies. There is a colorful arrangement of red, pink, and yellow Transvaal daisies, and near the drinking fountain is a spray of white flowers in a flat blue bowl.

Poppy Day Today

Today has been proclaimed Campus Poppy Day by Jack Daniels, president of Mu Delta Pi Veterans' fraternity.

"Although Saturday is official Poppy Day downtown," explains Daniels, "we are holding our drive today in order to give students a chance to contribute."

"The familiar red poppies will not be distributed, since they are never released except on official Poppy Day," Daniels points out. "All students, however, will be given an opportunity to contribute. Donations, large or small, will be gratefully accepted."

All proceeds from the drive will be turned over to the national fund, which is distributed among United States veterans hospitals and used to buy luxuries and comforts for disabled American war veterans.

Gripe Dinner Will Be Students' Chance To Present Criticisms

"Let's be individuals, and remember when we are discussing our gripes that we represent the average students of the college, rather than an organization," recommends Hugh Johnston, chairman for the semi-annual Gripe Dinner to be held Monday night in the Student Union at 6:30 o'clock.

Pat Dunlavy, "chief cook and bottle-washer" for the affair, will be assisted by a number of home economics majors in preparing and cooking the food. Six Spartan Spears, under the leadership of Claire Canevari, will take charge of serving.

Gamma Phi Sigma is handling the clean-up detail, while Black Masque has assumed responsibility for decorations. Miss Ada Gardner has supervised the over-all planning and cooperated in making Co-op facilities available to students for preparing the dinner.

Representatives of campus groups will be present at the dinner to report to the students and to listen to constructive criticism.

AWA MEETS TODAY

AWA will hold its weekly meeting today in room 24 at 4 o'clock. Plans will be made for Red Cross day and election of officers.

The weekly sale of war stamps will take place today at the arch near the library for all wishing to buy them.

TOMORROW IS PETITION DEADLINE IN ASB ELECTIONS

Deadline for signing petitions for student body offices has been set for tomorrow at 4 o'clock, according to ASB President Howard Riddle.

The petitions are available in the Business office, and are to be signed there under the direction of Ila Minter. Offices to be filled include those of president, vice president, secretary, and treasurer.

A nominations assembly has been scheduled for Monday at 12:30 o'clock in the Quad. Candidates and campaign managers must be present at the gathering. Candidates will each be allowed a one and one-half minute speech, after each manager has given a two-minute speech of introduction.

Posters and signs may be put up immediately after the assembly but are prohibited before or during the meeting. Qualifications for executive offices include attainment of junior standing at the time of taking office, enrollment of at least one year at time of taking office, and clear scholastic standing.

Sunday Swim Series Begins On May 27; Sign Up Now In Co-op

Sunday swimming series, originally scheduled to open on May 20, will definitely take place this Sunday, May 27, announces Ellen Mattison, Social Affairs committee chairman. The event was called off because of bad weather and the fact that most of the entertainers were on a USO tour.

Sign-up sheets will be placed in the Spartan Shop, and those who wish to participate are urged to sign up as soon as possible.

The Social Affairs committee will take over the food concession, with Pat Polk as refreshment committee head. Miss Polk announces that cup cakes will be served from 4 to 5 o'clock.

From now on the swimming pool will be open every Sunday from 1 to 5 to all ASB card holders. Students are requested to furnish their own suits, which must be either cotton or rayon. Wool suits are not allowed. All students are asked to cooperate in this matter.

FACULTY MEN REPRESENT S.J.S. AT UNCIO TEA

The two faculty members who will attend are Dr. William Poytress, having been selected by Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie, and Dr. Harry Jensen, who will attend as member of the Council of the Bay Section J. C. T. A.

These representatives will meet with 40 representatives attending the Security Conference who have special interests in regard to educational matters.

Newmanites Hear Rev. Connaughann

Father Connaughann, S. S., Ph. D., instructor of education at St. Patrick's Seminary, will address members of Newman club Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

Father Connaughann will discuss various phases of education and will be introduced by Father E. V. Schirle.

SPARDI GRAS KING

By GINN

King candidate Ken Black is that active young junior about campus who is a "very eligible MAN," according to sponsors, Zeta Chi and Theta Mu Sigma. Ken is a handsome fellow of 5 feet 11 inches with clear hazel eyes and neat looking hair. Oh, yes, that smile — a true personality smile. (Please, girls, don't swoon so!)

Ken is from that nice town (it has to be nice to have such a resident) up the peninsula, Burlingame, where he is a graduate of the local high school. After completing high school he attended San Mateo Junior college. For three years before entering State, Black was in Utah doing construction work. (Brawn and brains, too. What a man!)

After this period as a working man, Ken came to State (what a lucky break for this campus). Construction engineering is his major.
